

Gumaguy Intensive Family Workers (Family Preservation)

Ngunya Jarjum Aboriginal Child and Family Network

Lismore office NSW

Service delivery area Tweed Heads to Grafton NSW

About us visit www.ngunyajarjum.com

We value building meaningful relationships and work to build trust with families, communities and our partners.

Our Vision - A connected, culturally rich and thriving community where Ngunya Jarjum support our local families to nurture their children, raise them on country, and preserve our culture and strength into the future.

Ngunya Jarjum is currently looking to further expand our Gumaguy (meaning 'family') Programs team. This team is working to support families identified as at risk using a strengths-based, trauma informed practice model.

You will be supported to undertake a Cert IV or Diploma in Community Services or Child, Youth and Family Intervention aiming for completion within 24 months of commencement.

As part of the Gumaguy team, your focus will be providing support to families to achieve quality outcomes for the children living at home with their parents.

The key objectives of the role include to:

- Engage with and work alongside of families toward change, addressing safety and risk concerns effecting their children.
- Ensure case practice is delivered to a high professional standard and in a timely manner that promotes the safety, welfare and wellbeing of children living with their families.
- Provide on-call support to vulnerable families as required, intensive and regular in-home visiting services.
- Support the family to build and identify strengths, advocate and link families to appropriate services.
- Work closely with community networks and maintain positive interagency relationships.

Experience in family work, child protection, early childhood development, youth work is preferred.

Please submit your Resume and application letter outlining the following selection criteria

- You identify as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander
- Experience working with families to build and identify strengths, advocate and link families to appropriate services.
- Demonstrated ability to engage & work effectively with Aboriginal people and communities.
- Willing to obtain a Cert IV or Diploma in Community Services/Child, Youth and Family Intervention within 2 years of commencement.
- Ability to manage and prioritise tasks in a high-volume work environment to meet a number of competing deadlines.

- High level of computer literacy; sound working knowledge of Microsoft Office software
- Current NSW driver's licence

Appointment to this position will be subject to a National Criminal History Record Check and a NSW Working with Children – Employee clearance.

Two reference checks will be required including one recent supervisor.

Ngunya Jarjum Aboriginal Corporation has a COVID-19 Vaccination Policy in place which applies to Employees. If you would like further information regarding this policy, please email human.resources@ngunyarjum.com

Social, Community, Home Care and Disability Services Industry Award 2010

Classification - Social and community services employee level 4

- Full non-profit status with salary sacrifice available to reduce tax and increase your take home pay
- Located on beautiful Bundjalung Country
-

If you would like to know more about the position please contact Michelle Hicks or Tanachae Thaidy on \(02\) 6626 3700.

All applications will be received via SEEK or recruitment@ngunyarjum.com

Closing date for applications is Tuesday 04th October 2022

76 hour fortnight - Gumaguy Worker positions working with Mob

Ngunya Jarjum is an Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisation

This position is identified for Aboriginal people and exemption is claimed under 14d of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977.